

SERVICE*Opens Monday, June 2, 1919CHARACTER

THE SECURITY STATE BANK

CAPITAL $100,000TULSA, OKLAHOMA*SURPLUS $25,000

The officers and directors announce the opening of the Security State Bank on Monday, June 2, with pride in the city in which it is located and with the determination to make the city proud of the institution. The banking room is located in the room formerly occupied by the First National Bank, at the corner of Second and Main streets. The building will be known in the future as the Security State Bank building.

DIRECTORS

ALVA J. NILES, Banker and Oil Producer. Twelve years experience in the active management of banks in the various portions of Oklahoma. Formerly Cashier of the American National Bank of Tulsa. Also Cashier of the National Bank of Commerce at Guthrie during territorial days.

CHARLES W. BREWER. Widely known as one of the leading and successful bankers of Oklahoma, with an experience extending over twenty-five years of banking activity in this State.

CYRUS S. AVERY. Oil Producer and farmer of Tulsa. President of the Albert Pike Highway.

R. E. ALEXANDER. Secretary-Treasurer Oklahoma Natural Gas Company of Tulsa.

L. LYONS. Capitalist and Shoe Merchant of Tulsa.

HARRY W. KISKADDON. Oil Producer of Tulsa.

Home of the Security State Bank of Tulsa

Conducted Under the Banking Laws of the State of Oklahoma

OUR POLICY

Will be to merit your confidence and patronage on a basis of service rendered and Advantages offered

With ample capital and an active organization composed of men of experience in the banking business, we are prepared to assure our customers of satisfactory service—with a desire on our part to make a connection with this institution pleasant, agreeable and advantageous.

STABILITY

OFFICERS

With an increase of three millions of dollars in the total bank deposits of the city of Tulsa between the periods of the March and the May calls, there is ample evidence of the remarkable and consistent development of Tulsa and Tulsa County.

It will be the purpose of the new banking institution to give assistance to every legitimate enterprise and to devote the energies and resources of the bank to the GREATER TULSA policy. We have faith in the future of the magic city of Oklahoma and with our friends in the other banks of the city believe that the city is on the edge of an even more marvelous progress and development than in the past.

We invite the accounts of firms and individuals with the assurance of extending every courtesy and accommodation, consistent with sound banking.

ALVA J. NILES, President.

CHARLES W. BREWER, Vice President and Cashier.

A further announcement of the additional officers and management of the bank will be made at an early date.

SECURITY